

BUY WALL PAPER AT STABLER'S

RAINSBORO.

May 29, 1911.

Mrs. Belle Roads and Miss Nellie Garman spent last Wednesday and Thursday at Columbus.

Mrs. Anthony Yankle and son, Walter, of near Greenfield, were guests of friends here on Sunday.

H. W. Spargur and wife and Rellie Kearns and wife, of Bainbridge, motored over on Sunday and were guests of Elisha Beaver and family.

Miss Margaret Redkey spent part of last week visiting relatives at Painesville.

Miss Ada Baker, of Hillsboro, was the guest of friends here Saturday night and Sunday.

H. W. Roads and wife visited friends in Greenfield last Thursday.

Elizabeth Spargur and Blanche McNary have been visiting friends at Xenia the past week.

John Davis, of New Vienna, and Miss Mae Davis, of Cincinnati, were guests of their parents, Rev. J. H. Davis and wife, over Sunday.

Rev. A. E. Huntington and wife spent last Thursday in the country the guests of George Free and wife.

Mrs. Etta Pauley, of Springfield, came Saturday for a visit with her parents, O. B. Rhoades and wife.

Miss Florence Reslar, of Blanchester, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Belle Ferguson, over Sunday.

Marshall Sentman, wife and little son, of Cincinnati, are visiting Vernon Ladd and wife.

Dwight Cope and wife, of New Petersburg, were guests of C. A. West and family, Sunday.

A. J. Stalker and wife entertained several friends with a dance last Friday night.

C. L. Redkey and family spent Sunday at the Point the guests of Hullitt Hope and wife.

Mrs. Vernon Holmes has been sick the past week.

Miss Katherine Harrington is the guest of relatives near Dallas.

Tracy Browning, of Hillsboro, was the guest of his parents here Sunday.

I. A. McCoy, who has been living in Virginia for several years, is here now at the home of his brother-in-law, O. C. Bobb.

Will Ulen and family, of Salem, were guests of A. G. Cameron and family, Sunday.

Miss Pearl Chaney is spending a few days with her parents at Lynchburg.

Frank Adams, wife and son, Owen, spent Sunday with relatives near Newfain.

Don't forget the barn social at the home of George Free on the night of June 8. If you want an evening of fun and plenty to eat.

Miss Della Beetman, of Newfain, is the guest of her sister here this week.

Miss Grace Glenn is visiting friends at Dayton this week.

The last quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church will be held here June 11 and 12. District Supt. C. M. Van Pelt will be present both days.

Miss Frances Pepple is the guest of her cousin, Miss Elsa Roads.

W. S. Ferguson is spending a few days with relatives at Dayton.

BARRETT.

May 29, 1911.

Mrs. Joe Cowman, of near Greenfield, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morrow, last Thursday.

Vernon Hammond and his grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Pittro, were the guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Wm. Gall, near New Market, a few days last week.

John Turner is having his residence painted.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Pearce, of New Petersburg, visited their mother, Mrs. Mary Spence, Sunday.

W. W. Wolfe is building and addition to his barn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Wheaton and daughter, Olive, of near Greenfield, were the guests of J. S. Lovett and wife, Sunday and attended church at Quaker.

Mrs. Charles Diven and Miss Martha Ridgway, of Upper Fall Creek, attended church at Quaker.

Burch Parshall and wife were the guests of Hamer Lyle and wife, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Meredith and daughter, Mable, were guests of the latter's parents, Richard Morris and wife, Sunday.

A. M. Williamson and wife, John Gossett, wife and son, Robert, took dinner with W. W. Wolf and family, Sunday.

Ed. Meredith and wife entertained Thursday for dinner, Mrs. Samuel Wolf, Mrs. Sallie Chrisman, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Richard Morris and two daughters, Mable and Mary.

Wm. Davidson and family were guests of Elmer Deakne and family, Sunday.

Misses Elsie and Lucile Muhlbach, of near New Market, were guests of the Troth sisters a few days last week and attended church at Quaker, Sunday.

S. J. Ross and family were guests of Joe Haywood and family, Sunday.

The police made a raid on the residence of Mrs. Ellen Hurley on Smoky Row Thursday night. A barrel of empty beer bottles, a half barrel of bottles filled with beer and two pint bottles of whiskey partly filled. Twenty-two bottles of beer were on ice. Mrs. Hurley and Cliff Lamb who lives in the same house were arrested for keeping a place where intoxicating liquors are sold. Their trial is set for next Tuesday.

Frank Doggett, of Cincinnati, was the guest of his mother here Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Larkin will leave Saturday for a trip to Atlantic City, N. J., and other points in the East.

Mrs. William Bishir, who has been visiting relatives at New Market, returned to her home at Xenia, Tuesday.

Mrs. Ralph Mitchell and children, of Cleveland, returned home Tuesday, after a several weeks' visit with the former's parents, Col. and Mrs. L. R. Boyd.

The Baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class was delivered by Rev. J. R. Colley at the M. E. church. The sermon was an able and eloquent effort, full of helpful advice to the young people.

G. W. Mullenix and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Newark, were the guests of the former's brother, W. H. Mullenix, and relatives in the eastern part of the county, from Saturday until Tuesday.

Why does everyone say that Carroll's buggies are better and more stylish than any other? The statement must be true or 37 years time would have branded it a lie. We sell you direct and save you money.

THE M. F. CARROLL & SONS CO.

Frank Jeans went to Annapolis, Md., last Friday to attend the commencement exercises of the United States Naval Academy. His son, Howard, is a member of the graduating class. His son, Phillip, of Boston, Mass., will also be there this week.

The memorial services of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will be held next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church. The members of the order are requested to meet at the hall at 10 o'clock that morning. The members of the D. of A. are invited to join in the services.

B. W. Fenton, aged 58 years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frances Diehl, at Cincinnati May 22. He was a former resident of Hillsboro, living here from 1884 to 1889. While here he studied law in the office of H. A. Pavey but never engaged in active practice. He has been engaged in the construction of railroads for years.

Mrs. D. L. Foreman, aged 59 years, died at her home here Tuesday afternoon. She had been ill for months with a malignant growth of the liver. The funeral services will be held at the late residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Charles Coleman, of the Christian Church, interment in Hillsboro cemetery.

Kirby "Red" White, who has been with the Pittsburg National League ball club for the past two seasons, was sold last week to Indianapolis of the American Association. He spent Tuesday and Wednesday with his parents here, going from here to Toledo to join Indianapolis. "Red" has not been able to get in shape this season. His friends here expect him to pitch sensational ball in the American Association and expect to see him back in the big league next year.

Walters-Smith.

The following account of the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Genevieve Smith, of Chillicothe, formerly of Hillsboro, and Harry Walters, of Chillicothe, is taken from the Chillicothe News-Advertiser:

"The bans for the marriage of Harry Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walters, of East Main street, and Genevieve Smith, of East Second street, will be published in both Catholic churches Sunday for the first time."

"The announcement of the engagement of this popular young couple will elicit no end of good wishes from their host of friends."

"Miss Smith came from Hillsboro four years ago and is making her home with her sister, Mrs. E. W. Hughes, of East Second street. She has been employed as an operator at the Home telephone exchange where she is very popular with her co-workers."

"She is a petite brunette and is possessed of a very attractive personality. She has gained a wide circle of friends during her residence here."

"Mr. Walters is too well known to need any introduction. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Walters and holds the responsible position of clerk in the office of George W. Plumly, trainmaster of the B. & O. S. W. Railroad."

"He is a young man of sterling worth and ability and counts his friends by the scores."

"The wedding is set for June 8 at St. Mary's church."

Marriage Licenses.

Charles Williamson, Bainbridge, and Jessie Carr, Marshall.

Louis Jordan, Springfield, and Araminta Brown, Hillsboro.

Roscoe Scott and Elva T. Rhoades, both of Buford.

FORT HILL.

May 29, 1911.

Floyd Smith, of Harveysburg, spent a couple of days last week with his aunt, Mrs. J. B. Turner.

Miss Ocie Deardoff spent Saturday night and Sunday with her cousin, Eva Rhoades.

James Bobb left Friday to spend a few days with his sons at Springfield and will spend Decoration Day in Dayton.

Edward White and wife and two daughters were the guests of Mr. White's father, H. C. White, near Cliff Range, recently.

B. W. Spargur, of Carmel, was the guest of Wm. Countryman and wife Thursday night.

I. W. Stultz and daughter, Mrs. J. J. Butler, C. A. Rhoades and wife and Beatrice Patton, of Sinking Spring, attended Universalist meeting at Centerfield Saturday and Sunday and were entertained by Mrs. Iza Williams.

H. V. Matthews and wife and nephew, Benson Butler, spent Saturday and Sunday with the former's parents, D. O. Matthews and wife, at Greenfield.

Aulda Crum, of New Fain, visited relatives in this vicinity Sunday.

Miss Anna Shoemaker returned home Sunday after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Cinderella Rhoades, near Sinking Spring, who is confined to her room with measles.

J. B. Turner called on Blanche and Bess Butler Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Butler and son, Raymond and John Reed are all confined to their rooms with measles.

Eli Moore and wife and Manlove Reed and wife, of Sinking Spring, spent Thursday with the latter's parents, John Reed and wife.

Roscoe and Tod Hockman, who have been employed near Leesburg, are at home.

Clay and Tommie Eubanks, of Springfield, are guests of their parents, Filmore Eubanks and wife.

Mrs. Rebecca Stultz is ill.

Blanche Havens spent Saturday in Sinking Springs, the guest of friends.

Mrs. Jane Stultz and daughter, Mrs. Mary Bobb, spent Sunday with Blanch Butler and family.

FOLSOM.

May 29, 1911.

T. W. Mullenix and daughter, of Newark, are visiting friends and relatives here and near Union this week.

John Hopkins and wife and children, of Danville, visited his brother, P. A. Hopkins, and family, Sunday.

Ova West and family, of Union Chapel, were guests of T. L. Walker and family Sunday.

Wm. Reno has whitewashed his residence.

T. H. Murphy is having a veranda built and his house remodeled. I. W. Beets is the contractor.

BOWLES & CO.

TABLE TUMBLER SALE

We have just placed on sale 25 dozen each of four different designs of SPECIAL TUMBLER BARGAINS.

One is a tall, heavy Colonial shape, suitable for iced tea and lemonade. Usually priced at $1.25 per dozen.

Special Sale Price $1 Per Dozen

Another is a handsome, new Colonial shape, the regular size for ordinary table use. The kind we usually sell for $1.00 per dozen.

Special Sale Price 75c Per Doz.

The third is a plain, heavy, clear glass, straight shape that does not break easily. They usually sell for 75c per dozen.

Special Sale Price 5c Each or 60 Cents Per Dozen.

The last is a plain, full sized Table Tumbler we offer as a special value at Special Sale 3c Each or 35 Cents Per Dozen.

We have many other attractive Tumblers, Cut Glass, Needle Etched, Thin Blown, in various sizes and shapes. Also Table Goblets, Cut and Engraved. Those needing anything in this line should call and see our fine display.

GLASS SHERBERTS

SPECIAL SALE

We have also placed on sale 25 dozen Plain, Glass-handled Sherberts, usually priced at $1.25 per dozen.

Special Sale Price 75 Cents Per Dozen.

Bowles & Co

Dealers in Fine China and Glass

Boxwell Commencement.

The Boxwell commencement for the graduates of New Market township will be at the Baptist church in New Market on Saturday night, June 17. Rev. Frank Foust, of Pricetown has been secured to deliver the class address. Homer Emery is the teacher in charge.

YOU WILL BE THE GAINER

I want to show you the newest shades in Blue, Grey and Tan--this season's best sellers.

IT WILL PAY YOU

To call and look my line over and get
THE BEST IN STYLE
THE BEST IN FIT
THE BEST IN QUALITY
AT THE LOWEST PRICE

Sam R. Free
THE EXCLUSIVE CLOTHIER
FREE'S CORNER, HILLSBORO, O.

Peoples' Column

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—All kinds of Spraying Material as used and endorsed by Experiment Station by S. D. Linn, at Shaw's Shoe Shop or call Bell phone No. 20 R.

Money to loan by the Superior Loan and Building Association of Hillsboro, Ohio. (tf) John M. McMullen, Sec'y.

All kinds of farms and town properties for sale. WADE TURNER, Merchants Bank Building.

PROSPECT CROSSING.

May 29, 1911.

An ice cream social will be given by the ladies of Prospect M. E. church next Saturday night, June 3, for the benefit of the church. It will be held in the yard of Chas. Ashmore. Everybody invited.

Sanford Creed and daughter visited Mrs. George Carlisle last Sunday.

T. J. West and wife, of Walnut Hills, were the guests of his mother over Sunday.

Chas. Ashmore and wife were entertained by their daughter, Mrs. Don Main, at Marshall, Sunday.

A. E. Pavey and family were guests of friends in Hillsboro Sunday.

Frank Frump and wife were guests of friends at Belfast Sunday.

Miss Fay Kelley was entertained by Chas. McNeil and family Sunday.

Miss Elva Chaney visited Miss Myrtle Kelley Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Brehm returned home Saturday, after a week's visit with her daughter near Hillsboro.

Prospect Sunday School was well represented at the convention at Samantha last Wednesday. B. E. Chaney, assistant superintendent, gave the Sunday School here quite a good report Sunday and spoke highly of the entertainment the Samantha school gave them.

Mrs. Cora Powell, of Daytona, Fla., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Morrow.

BERRYVILLE.

May 29, 1911.

H. G. Shannon and wife entered ained Frank Kelley and wife, of Hillsboro, Sunday.

T. J. West and wife, of Walnut Hills, visited his mother here Saturday.

Grandma West is very sick. Alta Shannon visited Mrs. Evaline McCoy Tuesday.

Frank Gabriel and wife, of Norwood, visited Newt. Herdman and family Sunday.

Elbert Sexton and wife, of Samantha, and T. B. Cunningham and Dr. Mason spent Sunday with Benton Parks.

Will Swishelm and family entertained Mrs. Kerr and son, of May Hill, Sunday.

Squire Sweeny transacted business with the school board Monday.

Landon Caplinger and family spent Sunday in Leesburg.

O. S. Renoe was here Monday.

Mrs. Frank Elliott and mother and children visited Newt. Herdman's family Sunday.

Will Ream and family entertained Hamer Anderson and family, of Blanchester, Sunday.

A. W. Miller and family entertained Joe Miller and family, of Marshall, Sunday.

All kind of shoes at bargain prices at A. E. Pavey's new store.

LITTLETON.

May 29, 1911.

Mrs. Sylvia Hudson, of Westboro, spent Saturday with relatives at Honolulu.

Chas. Stubbs visited his parents in Lynchburg last week.

Mrs. Anna Shaw has to her home in Bond Hill, after spending the past two weeks with her parents, Jacob Stultz and wife.

Rev. E. R. Wagner will preach at the Dodsonville Lutheran church, Sunday night, June 4.

Albert Newton, of Middletown, is visiting his parents, J. W. Newton and wife.

Alva Roush and children spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Cincinnati.

Emmet Hastings spent from Wednesday until Friday with Tom Boatman, at Fall Creek, and attended the Sunday School Convention at Samantha.

Liza Belle Lafferty, of Honolulu, and Mrs. Ella Wise, of Norwood, visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Pearl Workman, Sunday.

DR. BESSIE M. SROFE

(OSTEOPATH)

HOTEL PARKER

Wednesdays and Saturdays Hours—11 to 4.

COAT SUITS

At greatly reduced prices at

KERNS'

TEN DAYS SALE